The Athletic Director's Honor Roll is made up of student-athletes with at least a 3.0 grade-point-average for the semester. Those listed on the Dean's List also receive this honor.

Academic excellence has been a key focus of the Mocs under head coach Russ Huesman. UTC football has set a program record in overall grade-point-average in three of the last four semesters and a team record 23 Mocs were on the Dean's List during the 2012 spring semester.

The Chattanooga Mocs have an excellent Student Support Services department in place for all student-athletes. UTC has recently allocated even more resources to this unit and now have four full-time staff members dedicated to assisting UTC student-athletes.

Through the use of advisors, tutors, study halls and many other programs, Student Support Services is on hand to help each student-athlete reach his or her ultimate goal of earning a college degree.

Goals of Mocs Athletics Student Support Services

- To support each student athlete's effort to receive a quality education.
- To encourage and facilitate the goals for each student-athlete's career path.
- To ensure that the academic integrity of UTC is maintained.
- To comply with all rules and regulations of UTC, the Southern Conference and the NCAA.
- To help ensure the continuing athletic eligibility during a student-athlete's years at UTC.

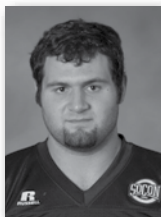

Coach Huesman with 2011 summer graduate Erroll Wynn. Wynn earned his degree in Psychology.

Coach Huesman with the 2011 fall graduates, including Joel Bradford, B.J. Coleman, Sloan Allison and Chris Lewis-Harris.

* Prior to 2009 and the arrival of head coach Russ Huesman, the Mocs had never had more than four football student-athletes on the Academic All-SoCon team in any given year. UTC shattered that mark with 10 Mocs on the 2009 and have had 26 over the last three years. Academic All-SoCon honors are given to student-athletes in their second year at the institution who have at least a 3.2 cumulative g.p.a. and competed in at least 50% of their team's contests. Three Mocs have made the ADA FCS Academic All-Star team since 2009 and Adam Miller is just the second Moc in school history to be honored on the CoSIDA Capital One Academic All-District team.

MOCS IN THE PROS C

UTC AND THE NFL

The Mocs have had no fewer than 50 former players on an NFL roster over the years. Former Mocs B.J. Coleman (Green Bay), Chris Lewis-Harris (Cincinnati), Terrell Owens (Seattle) and Buster Skrine (Cleveland) were on NFL rosters at the start of the 2012 training camp.

Terrell Owens (1992-95) has spent 15 seasons in the NFL after a standout career with the Mocs. He is a six-time Pro Bowl selection and a five-time All-Pro pick. After sitting out the 2011 season with an injury, he is back in the league with the Seattle Seahawks.

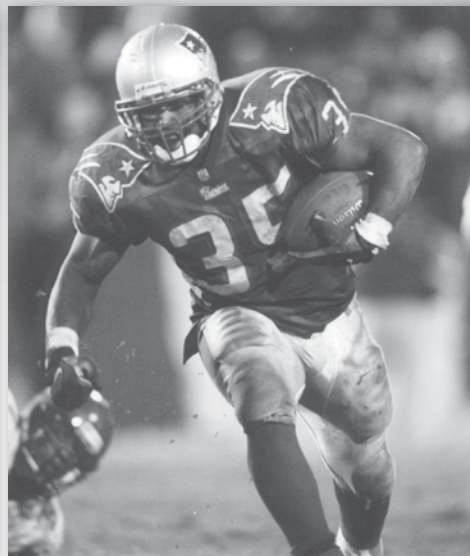

B.J. Coleman (2009-11) was a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers. UTC has had a player drafted in each of the last two seasons. (Photo courtesy of the Green Bay Packers)

Buster Skrine (2007-10) was a fifth-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns. He played in all 16 games as a rookie in 2011, making 18 tackles and one interception. (Photo courtesy of John Reid III)

In 1997, the Mocs football program said goodbye to historic Chamberlain Field and ushered in a new era for both the University and the City of Chattanooga. On Oct. 18, 1997, Chattanooga opened its new home, Finley Stadium Davenport Field, as an overflow crowd of 22,646 watched UTC defeat Tennessee State 28-7. The 20,668-seat facility is the best of its kind among Division I-FCS Subdivision stadiums and is the crown jewel for the city's Southside revitalization project.

The $28.5 million project needed financial support to become a reality. Donations from the private sector ranged anywhere from a $10 bill to $1 million. In fact, nearly 40 percent of the project came from private donations. The City of Chattanooga and Hamilton County contributed $13 million, the State of Tennessee gave $3.5 million and the University donated $2.9 million.

Ground breaking on the site that was once the Rock Tenn plant was held March 7, 1996. Seven months later, the Stadium Corporation named the facility Finley Stadium Davenport Field.

The late W. Max Finley, former Chairman of the Rock Tenn Corporation, dedicated his life to public service and was an active supporter of the University of Tennessee system. He received both the University of Chattanooga Distinguished Alumni Award and the Outstanding Service Award of the UTC Alumni Council. He was also inducted into the University's Hall of Fame.

The playing field is named in honor of the late Gordon Lee Davenport, the President and CEO of the Krystal Company from 1975-85. Davenport served as Chairman of the Stadium Corporation and Campaign and worked tirelessly in the planning and development of the facility. Davenport, a longtime friend of UTC athletics and Mocs football, received the UTC Alumni Council Outstanding Service Award and is a member of the University's Hall of Fame.

A new polyethylene artificial turf surface, a state-of-the-art plastic grass, was installed in the spring of 2005 by TC Thiolon USA and Precision Sports Fields, Inc.

The Stadium Corporation left nothing out of its masterpiece. The facility, designed by Derthick, Henley & Wilkerson and built by C&I Specialty, both of Chattanooga, contains 32 luxury sky boxes and 3,465 preferred seats with chairbacks. The $350,000 scoreboard includes a video board, and the Stadium Club can hold 250 for pregame or postgame functions. The press box can hold 60 media workers, has three radio booths and a television broadcast booth. Identical home and visitors locker rooms contain a separate athletic training area and coaches' locker room, as well as an extensive player locker area.

Besides serving as the home of Mocs Football, Finley Stadium Davenport Field hosted the NCAA FCS National Championship from 1997 to 2009. It is also host to international and high school soccer, high school football, national lacrosse tournaments, concerts and other community festivals.

TAILGATING

AT THE FIRST TENNESSEE PAVILION

Adjacent to the stadium is the perfect location for all of the Mocs' pregame tailgating festivities, inside the First Tennessee Pavilion.

The old Ross-Meehan Foundry has been renovated into an open-air pavilion which has become a favorite for tailgaters, complete with food and beverage concessions.

The pavilion offers tailgaters a perfect atmosphere around the stadium while providing protection from the weather without being indoors. For more information on tailgating in the First Tennessee Pavilion visit www.GoMocs.com.

SPORTS MEDICINE

FIRST-RATE CARE

Director of Sports Medicine Todd Bullard (left) has led the care of Mocs student-athletes for the past eight years.

The training room in McKenzie Arena serves the Mocs student-athletes with state-of-the-art equipment.

The Mocs have an excellent relationship with nearby Erlanger Hospital, providing top-quality care to all UTC student-athletes.

The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Sports Medicine Program provides prevention, care, and rehabilitation services for all student-athletes. UTC has two athletic training rooms that serve all athletic teams. Thanks to funding from Erlanger Hospital, the athletic training rooms are equipped with the most up-to-date rehabilitation equipment including a Biodex Isokinetic Unit, a Neurocom for balance testing and training, and a Trazer unit for functional rehabilitation. In addition, the Chattanooga Group, Inc., provides therapeutic modalities for use as both rehabilitation equipment and instructional devices for students enrolled in the Graduate Athletic Training Program.

The Graduate Athletic Training Program at UTC plays a major role in providing certified athletic trainers to insure that student-athletes are well taken care of. The entry-level masters program is one of few programs in the country that allows students to earn a master's degree while they gain eligibility to sit for the Board of Certification Exam. Members of the athletics department and the graduate program staff the athletic training rooms. They work together to insure quality health care for all Mocs student-athletes and quality academic instruction for athletic training students in the graduate program.

LAWSON CENTER

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

The $3.2 million Brenda Lawson Student-Athlete Success Center opened in January 2009 and houses the Wolford Family Strength & Conditioning Center.

The newly completed $3.2 million Brenda Lawson Student-Athlete Success Center is one of the finest facilities of its kind in college athletics. The Center, located on Vine Street in the heart of campus, houses the Chattem Basketball Practice Facility and the Wolford Family Strength and Conditioning Facility. Also located in the Center are meeting and film rooms that are available for all Mocs' athletic programs to use.

Director of Athletic Performance Scott Brincks and his staff use the facility to increase the Mocs football team's overall strength and conditioning level. Through rigorous offseason workouts, and programs to maintain peak performance during the season, the Lawson Center and Wolford Family Strength and Conditioning Facility will impact the Mocs' performance on the field for years to come.

As a part of a $2 million gift to the UTC College of Business and Mocs Football, Renee Haugerud and her husband John Murphy funded recent renovations to the Murphy Haugerud Football Practice Complex at Scrappy Moore Field. Murphy was a long-snapper at UTC from 1978-80 and played with head coach Russ Huesman.

GIVING BACK

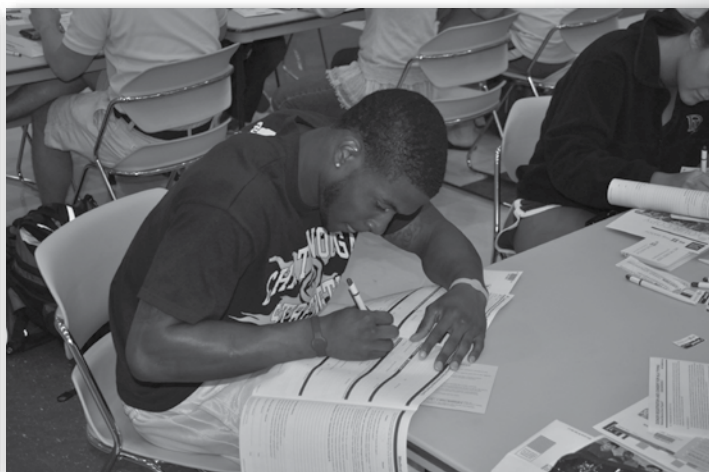

Junior Irvin Hernandez donned a Dr. Seuss hat to read to local elementary school students as a part of Read Across America Week.

Sophomore Brandon Morgan, Blake Coddington and junior Kevin Revis helped numerous other volunteers at the 2012 Special Olympics Spring Games in Chattanooga.

Senior Shane Heatherly, sophomores Muhasibi Wakeel and Taylor Dodds and freshman Jarrod Coleman were among the many Mocs to volunteer at the annual Bloodanooga Drive on campus.

Freshman Kendrix Huitt signs up for the "Get in the Game, Save a Life" bone marrow registry. Not only did the Mocs sign up, but they also recruited scores of classmates to join the national registry.

Head coach Russ Huesman speaks to a capacity crowd at Miller Plaza at a downtown pep rally in Chattanooga. Since his hire, Coach Huesman has been all over the local community promoting Mocs Football.

The Mocs are also heavily involved in the campus community. The football team was out in full force on Operation Move-In, helping UTC freshmen move into their dorms prior to the start of the fall semester.

MOC'S SUCCESS

— ACADEMICALLY, ATHLETICALLY & SOCIALLY —

ATHLETICALLY

Over the last six years, UTC has won 17 regular season and 22 tournament championships in the Southern Conference, far more than any other school during that time. After finishing in the top-100 in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup in 2009, the Mocs had their third-best showing at No. 136 in 2011. Here is a brief list of some of UTC's major accomplishments in 2011-12.

- Three SoCon Team Championships
- Seven Teams Represented in the Postseason
- Three All-Americans
- One Academic All-American
- Two Southern Conference Athletes of the Year
- Three Southern Conference Freshmen of the Year
- One Southern Conference Coach of the Year
- Seven SoCon Individual Champions
- 36 All-SoCon Performers

All-American Michelle Fuzzard was the SoCon Player of the Year and the SoCon Female Athlete of the Year in 2011-12.

All-American Stephan Jeager won the SoCon Title, was the SoCon Golfer of the Year and won the NCAA Regional in 2012.

Jordan Britt led the Mocs to their third straight SoCon trophy and was individual medalist at the SoCon Tournament.

Nick Soto was the 2012 SoCon Champion at 133 and the SoCon Freshman of the Year.

Kaylene Chadwell went 23-9 in 2012 and was named the SoCon Freshman of the Year.

Terrell Robinson was the 2011 SoCon Freshman of the Year after an outstanding rookie campaign under center.

Lucas Cotter posted a school-record time of 8:10.28 on his way to winning the 2012 SoCon Indoor 3000M title.

Becca Smith lead the SoCon in scoring with 37 points on 16 goals and five assists. She was also a Capital One Academic All-District pick.

ACADEMICALLY

The Mocs' student-athletes continue to have tremendous success in the classroom. Below are just a few of the Academic accolades UTC received last year:

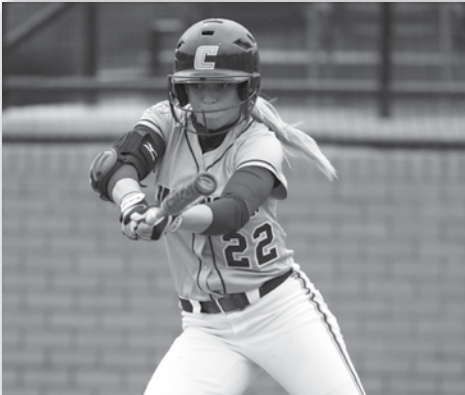

- The overall g.p.a. of the Mocs' student-athletes has increased in seven of the last eight terms, culminating with a school-record-tying 2.97 in the spring.
- Over half of all UTC student-athletes earned at least a 3.0 grade-point-average in each of the last six semesters.
- Each member of the SoCon Champion women's golf team made the Dean's List in the spring.
- Men's cross country led the nation with a 3.81 g.p.a. and the women were fifth with a 3.73.

Chris Berry became the 13th Moc in school history to be named Capital One Academic All-American by CoSIDA.

Maria Juliana Loza won the Dayle May Award for the highest g.p.a. among the female senior athletes at UTC.

Sara Poteat was a member of the Capital One Academic All-District team and was on the NFCA All-Region team.

Christina Teter made the Capital One Academic All-District team and was on the SoCon All-Academic squad.

Brandon Wright won the SoCon Title at 165 and was one the Academic All-SoCon and Academic All-NWCA teams.

SOCIALLY

The Chattanooga Mocs Athletics Department is heavily involved in community events throughout the year. UTC student-athletes, coaches and staff logged over 1,800 hours volunteering in the community over the last year at events such as canned food drives, the Freshman Move-In, Bloodanooga, Clean and Green and Read Across America.

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) plans many of the Athletic Department's community events. The Mocs have a presence at Chattanooga's Special Olympics events each year. UTC student-athletes also host many events that engage the local community, such as the 2012 Southern Scuffle.

Members of the Mocs wrestling team helped out at the Ronald McDonald House Move-In Day.

The Lady Mocs hosted their second-annual Girls Scouts Sports-A-Thon in Maclellan Gym in February.

Jackson Tresnan and members of the men's tennis team visited with veterans at the VA Outpatient Clinic.

Volleyball student-athlete Meagan Ernd reads to elementary school kids on "Read Across America" day.

Members of the women's basketball team joined a number of Mocs in the "Clean and Green" program to help keep up the area around campus.

WHAT'S A MOC?

THE EVOLUTION OF THE MASCOT

THE ANSWER

For more than a decade, this question has puzzled many fans and observers of Chattanooga Athletics.

The UTC Athletics Department changed logos in 1997, moving away from Native American imagery to a package of logos using railroad images, the nickname "Mocs," and the Scrappy mascot. The new package emphasized UTC's connection to Chattanooga and the city's railroad heritage and incorporated the Tennessee state bird.

The term "Moc" is short for "Mockingbird." Mockingbirds are fiercely territorial creatures which protect their homes with courage, determination and skill. Those attributes reflect the intellect, spirit and character of UTC student-athletes and alumni. A Moc is a champion on the playing surface, in the classroom and, most importantly, in life.

Introduced in 2008, the new-look Scrappy has a sharper and more modern feel, mirroring the growth and image of UTC Athletics.

SCRAPPY

Named after legendary football coach A.C. "Scrappy" Moore, Scrappy, the Chattanooga mascot, is a fixture for the Mocs. A re-design in 2008 puts Scrappy in the image of the State Bird of Tennessee, a mockingbird. The mockingbird is known as a fierce protector of its nest and environment. It is sometimes seen swooping down on a dog, cat or predator that may be venturing too close to the bird's protected territory. Once described by "Late Night" host Jimmy Fallon as "a sledgehammer wielding mockingbird with a heart of Blue & Gold," Scrappy symbolizes that competitive passion.

WHY MOCs?

Faced with politically sensitive issues and in need of a stronger core identity to help establish a strong brand as Chattanooga's Team, the athletics department embarked on a comprehensive identity program in 1996. A new direction for the athletics identity was determined, moving away from the politically incorrect Native American Indian imagery.

Several identities have been used in the past. With the old nickname "Moccasins," a snake was used in the 1920s and an Indian was used until the year of major change in 1996. A moccasin shoe was even used in the 1980s.

In 1996, it was decided to adopt the State Bird of Tennessee, the Mockingbird, as the core of the new identity, while incorporating the strong regional imagery of Chattanooga's vast railroad history. The mascot "Scrappy" was born and a new emphasis was placed on the athletics department's role in the region.

The committee also recognized the need for the word "Chattanooga" to have a great emphasis in the logo. The nickname "Moccasins" was shortened to simply "Mocs." Thus established, Chattanooga could rebuild its athletics programs and initiatives around this new identity.

And rebuild it did. Quickly establishing the identity program in February 1997, combined with tremendous success in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, UTC had positioned itself to reach for the next level.

From 1997 to 2007, the primary logo was the mascot, Scrappy, riding a train. The secondary logo features the front of a train with the word Mocs built into the logo. This logo is affectionately called the "Cowcatcher logo," referring to the front lower grill of the train that helped push objects from the train tracks.

In August 2007, officials at Chattanooga updated the school's marks. A new C logo, the "Power C" as it has become known to fans and alums, was created as the primary mark and is emblazoned on the side of the football team's helmets. The secondary marks were updated with a more modern look, and a new font, unique to the school, is now used on the text areas of the logos and marks.

In September 2008, Scrappy was re-branded to better match the image of a mockingbird and reflect the rich tradition of our state, our city and our University. New marks of the head as well as a full body were released. The program has also been taking special efforts to stay true to its color palette—which includes navy blue and old gold.

The "Power C" logo is the primary mark of Chattanooga Mocs Athletics.

The Cowcatcher logo has been recently modified, but is still in use by UTC Athletics.
